Planning Process Info- Bill

Responsibilities & Timeline

1. Access resident data (available this Friday-1/15)
2. Develop operational definition of “Resident Driven”
3. Establish what outcomes we would like to accomplish around Food Justice in the next 10 years
4. Prioritize outcomes- Target Date: 02/10/10

Why “Food Justice” not “Obesity”?

... Understanding the effects of an unjust food system on our health, including obesity.

-Why Place Matters (see attached summary, visit <http://www.unnaturalcauses.org/> for more info, or contact the IRC to ask about viewing the film)

This is really cool, too- http://www.unnaturalcauses.org/interactivities_03.php

HOMEWORK- (thanks Bill!)

-Review resident data (Available Friday)- see Mid-City CAN website for more info-

<http://www.midcitycan.org/pages/planning.htm>

-Talk to folks around the community about what we’re doing & listen to what they have to say

-Think about what resident drive REALLY means... are we doing it?

-Review Vancouver Declaration for inspiration, attached in English, soon to be available in Spanish

-Review Food Justice Talking Points, attached in English, soon to be available in Spanish, Vietnamese, and Somali

NEXT MEETING- 1/27, 12-2, CH Wellness Center
