

Food Justice Momentum Meeting Topics

2/10/10

Question- What would CH be like if all residents had full access to healthy, culturally appropriate food?

Answer- For there to be full access to healthy, culturally appropriate food for all CH residents there must _____.

- be local, ecologically sustainable economic development supporting the production and consumption of such foods.
- be multi-level policies that support food justice.
- be stable and reliable access to financial and structural resources.
- be continuous culturally appropriate nutrition education promoting a just food system.
- All environments must support culturally appropriate, affordable healthy eating.
- be access to land for urban farming for all.