

FOOD JUSTICE MOMENTUM TEAM: TARGETED CHANGES

Focus Question: What blocks us from creating “Environments that support culturally appropriate, affordable, healthy eating?”

Existing public policy & bureaucracy	Level of community awareness of food programs	Level of language & literacy capacity	Cultural Understanding
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Policy changes to support healthy eating • Decision makers • Disconnected government (systemic) Programs to community • City plan – City staff • Restrictions still in place on community gardens • Land/resources for community agriculture • Education on Political Advocacy • Educate city staff & policy makers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Education on food programs • Not enough awareness of nutrition and nutrition classes • Awareness of existing nutrition education classes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Language • Language barrier (need language classes for all immigrants and refugees) • Literacy • 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lack of access to culturally appropriate food • Culturally competent providers & vendors

Level of participation in nutrition programs	Allocation & access to financial resources	Physical Environment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Education nutrition • Lack of nutrition education classes 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial issues • Not enough resources ($) available • $ Economy • Lack of financial resources: local farmers, state, agencies, consumers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Built environment – Where to eat – eat in • Transportation

March 24, 2010